

Competition rules

1. Esports matches/tournaments are organised by 4ENTERTAINMENT, whose registered offices are in Belgium at Harmoniestraat 52, 2300 Turnhout (referred to together hereinafter as 'the Organisers'). These matches/tournaments are played via the RIV4L.be website in Belgian territory or via another medium as stated in the match/tournament. These rules apply to all matches/tournaments. Special terms and conditions for each match/tournament can be found at the tournament website. If they vary from these rules, the special terms and conditions will prevail. The organisers may vary the present provisions and rules for a specific match/tournament at any time if the need to organise a match/tournament justifies this or if this benefits as many players as possible.
2. In entering, entrants admit and agree expressly that they know the rules and accept them and waive any actions against the organisers including on the provisions of the present rules.
3. The competition/tournament is open to all Belgian and Dutch residents age 18 and over except employees of 4ENTERTAINMENT, the organisers' agents and any of the executing bailiff's appointed staff.
4. To be eligible to take part, the conditions below must be met:
 - 4.1 If a match is via the RIV4L website: entrants will only be eligible to take part if they have entered their names and e-mail addresses in the space provided for that purpose and answered the questions whether asked or not. Only one entrance form will be accepted per person. Anyone who answers more than once will be disqualified automatically unless the organisers decide otherwise and inform the entrants or announce this in any special terms and conditions before the match. Forms must reach the organisation by the date specified or on the last day of the match at 11:59pm via the website above and via being registered officially. Anyone who uses multiple registrations ('double accounts') to enter more than one answer will also be disqualified.
 - 4.2 If a match is via another medium: entrants will only be eligible to take part if they meet the conditions for the match concerned. The organisers will not be responsible if anyone gives an address which is not theirs, and this will lead to immediate disqualification. Entrants may not take part under different names for which they have powers of attorney or any other documents.
5. Under no circumstances can the organisers be held liable for any loss of or damage to entries. All damaged, illegible or incomplete entries will be disqualified. Nor can they ever be held liable for any technical problems during the match/tournament.
6. Prize winners acknowledge expressly that the organisers are merely responsible for presenting prizes, and cannot in any way be regarded as producing or providing services. If any travel is involved, they cannot be regarded as travel agents or organisers. In accepting prizes, winners admit expressly that they accept the general and special terms and conditions which apply to the prizes obtained and waive any claims of any kind including against the organisers on account of the prize. The organisers cannot accept any liability whatsoever for the technical characteristics of the prizes. The organisers cannot be held liable should their sponsors or suppliers fail to deliver prizes and will not be bound should suppliers fail to deliver prizes to furnish any other prizes, although the organisers may always be allowed to deliver a prize of equivalent value to the winner(s).

RIV4L

7. Prizes won cannot be exchanged for any other products, services or money unless expressly provided. Winners must prove their identity when prizes are presented. The winner has one month from reporting their win in which to make themselves known and claim their prize. After that, the organisers may withdraw the prize and appoint another winner.
8. The organisers can never be held liable in the event of force majeure or should certain match/tournament modalities have to be modified. The match/tournament organisers reserve the right to vary the campaign or its course should unforeseen circumstances or circumstances beyond their control justify this. They cannot be held liable should a match/tournament be interrupted, deferred or cancelled due to circumstances beyond their control. The organisers reserve the right to suspend a match/tournament due to force majeure at any time without being liable to pay any damages or amounts whatsoever. Force majeure will be deemed to include the organisers encountering problems with third parties or sponsors in implementing a match/tournament or presenting prizes.
9. The match/tournament winner will be chosen according to the special terms and conditions, rules of the game and/or settings as the Organisers decide. If there is any doubt or discussion, the organisers may nominate the winner without being required to give any reasons for their decision, and their decision is final. Any match may, but need not be, held under a court bailiff's supervision.
10. Under no circumstances will the organisers reveal any details about a match/tournament or winners before, during or after the match/tournament unless the organisers decide to do so themselves, nor will they be bound to answer any correspondence or other communications which may not under any circumstances be regarded as accepting the contents of the communications received. This also means that the organisers will not be bound to announce or publish the winners' identities.
11. Winners will be notified by post, e-mail or telephone, whereby they will then be informed of the modalities involved in presenting the prizes and any other practical arrangements. Prizes must be collected from 4Entertainment offices during office hours unless the organisers decide otherwise. All winners must present a current passport/identity card and sign a declaration saying they were playing on their own behalf and are not pursuing any commercial interests in taking part in the match/tournament.
12. Any protests or comments must be made in writing to 4ENTERTAINMENT bvba, Harmoniestraat 52, 2300 Turnhout, whereby we reserve all rights to formulate a reply letter and whereby any absence of reply may never be regarded as formal acceptance thereof on the part of the organisers.
13. In the event of possible fraud or a clear attempt to influence the match/tournament unlawfully, the organisers reserve the right to exclude entrants from the match/ tournament and from all other and future matches/tournaments without notice. Acting under instructions and selling prizes won systematically will be regarded as contrary to the match/ tournament and its goals in particular.
14. Entrants cannot derive any rights from any faults in the system or prize questions of both a technical and editorial nature.
15. The parties will try to resolve any disputes amicably. If they cannot resolve them within a reasonable time, the Courts of Antwerp will have exclusive jurisdiction and Belgian law will apply exclusively.